Xi'an Sizzling Woks 902 Arch St. 215/925-1688 Xi'an Sizzling Woks opened quietly in Chinatown, with almost no one noticing. But once you try the Chinese kimchi, Chinese hamburgers, or Biang Biang noodles, you'll never forget the name. It's one of the many surprises at Xi'an Sizzling Woks, a restaurant specializing in Shaanxi province cuisine.

Nothing blends these influences into a soulful fusion like the passage of thousands of years. Our top recommendation is the "Chinese Hamburger," a hearty appetizer that's like a lip-smacking form of Middle Eastern heresy. Another burger worth trying is beef and green pepper, seasoned with cayenne pepper and cumin for a stronger flavor. There's no better way to beat the heat in the summer than with a bowl of Liang Pi "cold noodles"—"whether it's the weather or the chili". Unlike other restaurants, Xi'an Sizzling Woks is also built for family-style sharing.
